

Central Gardens of North Iowa

800 2nd Avenue North • 641-357-0700 • www.central-gardens.org

Hours: Dawn to Dusk (April - December)

Central Gardens is North Iowa's only public garden. Stroll along winding pathways, unique bridges and appealing water features to enjoy more than 22,000 annual and perennial flowers planted and maintained entirely by volunteers. The gardens provide a unique space for guests and visitors to use for corporate events, weddings, family reunions or just a quiet stroll or lunch. The Nature Education Pavilion is available for rental. Group tours may be arranged with advance reservation.

Fresh on Friday

8-11 a.m. Friday mornings June through August

Refresh your spirit on Friday mornings at Central Gardens of North Iowa! Fresh on Friday features beautiful bouquets arranged on site and straight from the garden! Take your flowers home in a repurposed vase or upcycled container or bring your own. Stay a while and enjoy coffee and seasonal refreshments on the patio while listening to music and browsing through a fun selection of books, magazines and games. Something for ALL ages! Kids are welcome!

Perennial Plant Sale and Gardening Fair

May 21 8 a.m. – Noon (or till sold out)

Central Gardens of North Iowa's 17th annual perennial plant sale features hundreds of winter-hardy perennials, including iris, bleeding heart, grape hyacinth, daisies, coneflowers, coral bells, columbine, lilies, peonies, sedum, yarrow, phlox, hostas, and much more, plus lovely specialty specimens from Central Gardens itself. The event also includes a 'Treasure Trove' of gently-used garden items, sold at bargain prices and beautiful hand-crafted garden-related art (birdhouses, benches, etc.) A free children's activity will be held along with timely and interesting free gardening seminars. Free admission.
